(v) = Vegetarian As we believe in good quality fresh food, there may be a wait and we ask for your patience at these times.

All weights and measures used are pre-cooked and approximate weights. We cannot guarantee there are no traces of nuts or any other allergens in our ingredients. We do try our best to remove all bones from our fish products but cannot guarantee all fish is 100% bone free. If a member of your group has any dietary requirements, please feel free to seek guidance from our waiting staff. We do try and cater for everyone's requirement and demands.
